

Advising for First Year Students

As a first year student at TLU, you have a full-time faculty member and an upper-class student who will help with your transition into college and aid you in meeting the academic requirements for degree completion.

These individuals are your ACADEMIC ADVISOR and PEER MENTOR.

Look at your course schedule to find your Academic Advisor. See below:

ACADEMIC ADVISOR

All first year students are required to take FE134: Exploring the Arts and Sciences. The FE134 instructor serves as the first year student's Academic Advisor.

Academic Advisors in the FE134 course are committed to working with first year students, assisting students in their transition into college, and providing general support to students as they learn their way around campus and campus resources.

All students are encouraged to get to know their Academic Advisor, ask questions regarding academic progress, participation in extracurricular activities, and about campus resources.

Students are encouraged to move to a new advisor in their major area of interest at the end of the first year of college.

PEER MENTOR

Peer Mentors assist first year students during orientation and throughout the academic year with their personal and academic transition into the TLU community. Peer mentors facilitate orientation groups and plan orientation activities.

They also attend the FE134 class he/she is paired with and play an active role in class discussions, teaching some topics alone.

Peer mentors are expected to assist the Director of First Year and Campus Programs in providing out-of-class experiences that provide support and guidance on first-year issues.

Most of all, peer mentors serve as role models to new students.
