Levels of Study

Middle School Bands:

Designed to be a growth experience for students with at least one year of instruction AND entering grades 6 through 8. Students will have the opportunity to further develop fundamental skills while pursuing a wide variety of elective offerings.

High School Bands:

Provides a unique musical experience for students entering grades 9 through 12, allowing for each individual's area of interest and strength to be developed. In addition to the general course of instruction, there is the option of emphasis in drum majoring. Enrollment will be in one specific area or students may elect the general track, in which students are allowed to choose a combination of courses from any offerings in any area.

ABOUT THE TLU SMA

Faculty:

All faculty, housing directors and activity leaders will be Texas certified educators and professors from premiere universities and colleges. All staff are selected based on outstanding performance professionally and their personal commitment to the Texas Lutheran University Music Academy philosophy.

Performances:

All performances are open to the public. Professionally made compact discs will be available for purchase at the time of the performances.

Housing:

Students will be housed in separate residence halls based on age and gender.

Social Activities:

Activities may include swimming, socials, tournaments, casino night, movies, recreational sports, recitals, talent show, etc. All activities will be supervised by professional camp personnel.

Environment:

A student's performance depends on many things including: challenging instruction, highly qualified and supportive faculty, a camp culture that builds community, accessible facilities, and opportunities to grow in every dimension. At the Texas Lutheran Summer Music Academy, students will find the ideal conjunction of all these factors and more. The camp is conveniently contained within the borders and safety of the TLU campus. Seguin is located 35 miles northeast of downtown San Antonio and 50 miles south of Austin. It is easily accessible from any direction via major thoroughfares.

Cost:

Residential Students – $450 includes all instruction, housing, meals, activities and a camp T-shirt.

Commuter Students – $289 includes all instruction, two meals daily, activities and a camp T-shirt.
