SILENT AUCTION RULES

1. Bids are placed by writing your first and last name and phone number on the first available line on the bid sheet corresponding to the item number.
2. Bidding begins with the stated minimum bid. Silent bids must increase previous bid by the stated minimum increase or the bid will be invalid. Bids must be made by adults (18 years of age or older) only.
3. The Silent Auction will close in two phases: Section 1 at 7:50pm and Section 2 at 7:55pm at which point the bid sheets are collected. The person who is the highest written bidder at the close of the auction will be the winner of the item entitled to purchase it at the highest price. In the event of a dispute, each bidder accepts and agrees that the winning bid will be determined by and in the sole discretion of the auction chair (or such other person as TLU may, in its discretion, designate) and that such determination shall be binding, final and not appealable. Each bidder waives any right to contest same. TLU reserves the right to disallow any bid or bidder in its sole discretion, and each bidder waives any right to contest same.
4. Items must be picked up during or immediately following the live auction. Payment may be made with cash, check, VISA, Master-Card, Discover or AmEx. Receipts will be available on request after the evening of the auction.
5. All payments are due in full the evening of the auction. TLU reserves the right to sell unpaid items to the next highest bidder. All sales are final, and no refunds will be made.
6. Each auction item is “as is” and does not include any warranty or representation of any kind as to the condition or fitness of the bid items or as to the existence or lack of any defects. Each bidder agrees to make his own investigation of such items and is not relying upon TLU or anyone else for their decision to bid or purchase any item. No one except the bidder has caused the bidder to bid and purchase any item.
7. As a condition precedent to participating in the auction, each bidder expressly waives and releases TLU, the auction chair, the auction organizers, and all persons involved with them in running the auction, from any claim or cause of action of any kind which they might have arising or relating in any way to the auction, bid process, bid items, auction results, and any bid dispute determinations.
