The TLU President’s Impact Report highlights university goals and accomplishments over the past fiscal year and is an official report on giving. The report also recognizes and thanks those who have given to the university throughout the year.

THE TLU DIFFERENCE

Our Mission

As a community of faith and learning, Texas Lutheran University empowers a diverse student body through an education centered on the liberal arts and professional programs. In pursuit of a more just world, TLU is committed to academic excellence, servant leadership, and career development.

ON THE COVER —

TLU President Debbie Cottrell pictured with members of the prestigious Black & Gold President’s Council (BGPC), a group of students selected to represent TLU at various events and occasions both on and off campus. Focusing on networking skills and social leadership, BGPC members are official representatives of the university.
In the past year, we’ve all heard some key words to describe the experience of living through a pandemic: unprecedented, challenging, uncertain, overwhelming. No doubt those words resonate with most of us, and I would certainly say that those words speak to the past year at TLU and the historic journey we took!

And yet, if asked to provide the one word that best describes my experiences in my second year as president of TLU, I would offer the word “gratitude.” In the midst of so many unusual circumstances, as our faculty, staff, and students were asked to make so many rearrangements and transitions, as the pandemic persisted, and as we all experienced loss, there was not a single day that did not bring evidence of incredible support, commitment, care, and faith from our internal community members as well as our supporters far and wide. Gratitude for this great university and the many who walk with us as we go about serving our students is my theme of the year.

My gratitude is bolstered by ongoing progress we made in the past year. Launching our new TLU2025 Strategic Plan, seeing our accelerated nursing program in New Braunfels take root and grow well beyond our expectations, achieving a balanced budget and stable enrollment, and raising more than $7 million in support of our institution were certainly important achievements. In sum, they reflect the fact that while facing many immediate challenges tied to our external health environment, we were also able to cast our gaze beyond the present and focus on work that will impact our future.

Last year provided daily assurance that the Bulldog spirit is alive and well at TLU. Engaged students, eager to be here with high expectations for their education, demonstrated their commitment in the classroom (remote or in-person), in a host of virtual events, and through a jam-packed spring athletic season—where every team played and every (abbreviated) season was completed. Engaged faculty members adjusted their courses to ensure that our full academic schedule was in place for the year. Engaged staff members focused on campus safety and undertook heroic efforts to keep TLU going strong.

Of course, all of our activities and efforts were bolstered by your support. All the ways that you gave and all the ways that you made a commitment to TLU made a significant difference here. I am so grateful for that, and remain eager to work with you to lead our great university forward.

My goals are unchanged from the day I became president in July 2019:

- To serve our students well.
- To honor our faith and diversity.
- To ensure our longevity and financial stability as a premier private educational institution.

Thank you for being a loyal donor and for helping me and our entire community achieve these goals. TLU graduates make unlimited contributions in our society and offer great hope for our future. Guided by the amazing opportunity to prepare these students, I look forward to joining with you to ensure that the promise of TLU is fulfilled.

Sincerely,

Debbie Cottrell

If you have any questions about TLU’s Day of Giving, please email development@tlu.edu, call 830-372-8030, or visit the Department of Development website at www.tlu.edu/give-to-tlu to learn more about supporting Texas Lutheran University. Thank you.
Mark Knaier recalls pulling onto the Texas Lutheran campus in his father’s Buick. He makes no bones about the fact that his academic history left a bit to be desired, but his father Gordon S. Knaier, Jr. was determined to give Mark an opportunity to excel. A high school interest in psychology led him to the office of Dr. Georgette K. Maroldo. Dr. Maroldo served as his academic advisor and a dear mentor throughout his time at TLU, through her encouragement, Mark became more determined and focused to complete his degree.

After graduating in 1982, Mark spent time in the restaurant industry before a connection through volunteer opportunities led to a successful career in sales and eventual ownership of a staff leasing company. When asked about his journey into philanthropy, Mark is quick to acknowledge that he gives in honor of those that gave to him as a student at TLU. Though he was not the recipient of institutional financial aid, Mark felt indebted to “pay back” his father’s contributions toward his education. In 2001, Knaier family gifts funded the establishment of the Maroldo Scholarship and the Gordon S. Knaier, Jr. Research Endowment. Mark and Lily have gone on to establish the Dr. Bob Hiner Psychology Travel Fund as well as the Joyce Knaier Fund for behavioral research software.

A question two years ago posed by the Knaier’s then 20-year-old daughter – ‘Dad, do you see colors when you hear music?’ - led to Mark and Lily’s interest in the study of synesthesia, a neurological condition in which information meant to stimulate one of your senses stimulates several of your senses. TLU faculty member and long-time friend of Mark, Dr. Scott Bailey, leads a growing undergraduate research team as they develop partnerships with regional organizations and international researchers in studying this condition. It is Mark’s hope that the TLU research can identify real world applications, but he also recognizes that by providing designated support to the psychology department the Knaiers afford students access to advanced research opportunities at the earliest levels possible during their education.

Mark implores his peers to “think about the times you had on campus and find ways that you can make TLU even better than when you left it at graduation.”

“In late 2019, then living in central Ohio, I made the decision to return to Texas to live out my life, and realized it was essential to me that I settle in the vicinity of Texas Lutheran, the college that influenced so much of my 80+ years. TL(C)U is where I earned my bachelor’s degree, formed life-long friendships, where my marriage and family emerged, and where I spent the most productive years of my professional life. My late husband and I made some annual contributions to the college early on, then became President’s Associates when I joined the staff in 1981, and later funded an endowed scholarship. Supporting the work that TLU does in educating and sending out prepared, productive people into the world is an important part of my legacy.”

Genevieve Schwab Moore Scholarship
by Kim Gannon

Genevieve Ann Schwab was born on November 21, 1953, in Wichita Falls, TX and graduated from Marion High School in 1972. She went on to attend Texas Lutheran College where she majored in Elementary Education. As a student, Genevieve became a member of Kappa Pi Gamma, a social sorority, and graduated cum laude in 1976. Genevieve’s family is one of the 12 founding families of New Braunfels. She and her husband, Mark, met at a “back to school” party in Seguin and were married on August 8, 1981.

Mark Moore was born on July 17, 1950, in Bay City, TX and graduated from Seguin High School. He and Genevieve have one son, Kyle Moore, who still helps with the family business. Mark’s family owned and operated Zella’s Liquor Store in Seguin and farmed numerous acres in the area surrounding Seguin and South Texas. As a child, Mark’s father was in the oil business and his family moved a great deal. Mark recalls attending 10 different schools over the course of 10 years.

In 1988, Genevieve earned her master’s in education from Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. A gifted educator, she went on to teach kindergarten for 41 years, she was recognized many times as the Teacher of the Year. Genevieve was also involved with the Guadalupe 4-H and spent 30 years as manager of the Marion 4-H. In 2019 she received the Texas 4-H Salute to Excellence Award.

Genevieve and Mark enjoyed traveling and did so as much as possible. Some favorite memories include biking through Maine and Vermont, as well as skiing in Colorado. They planned to travel even more after retirement.

Genevieve passed away in 2020 after battling cancer. In celebration of her life, and to honor her memory, Mark established an endowed scholarship at Texas Lutheran University which supports students majoring in education, recognizing Genevieve’s lifelong love and career.

We are thankful for your support and, therefore, it is important to us that we accurately acknowledge your gift and list your name according to your wishes. If your information is missing or incorrect, please contact us at 830-372-8030. Thank you.

I support TLU each year because I believe in the mission, I believe in the students, and I believe that my contribution makes an immediate impact. Texas Lutheran University was an amazing experience for me, and I hope to continue that for all future Bulldogs.

Texas Lutheran University is proud of our successful Nursing Program and the opportunity for our future health professionals to make a profound impact in their communities. This growth would not be possible without the generosity of donors like Baptist Health Foundation of San Antonio (BHFSAs), which sustains the education and training of tomorrow’s healthcare providers and leaders. BHFSAs offers scholarship funding to partner institutions that offer health education in Bexar County and seven contiguous counties. TLU is fortunate to be a Funded Partner Institution of BHFSAs, having received more than $270,000 in Annual Scholarship funds for the Nursing Program since 2013. This investment in our future nurses aligns with BHFSAs’s mission, “to improve the health of our community by fostering and funding clinical, educational, spiritual, and scientific initiatives while honoring God and their Baptist heritage.”

"Baptist Health Foundation of San Antonio provides scholarship grants in order to strengthen the community in which we all live and work. Individuals working in healthcare fields need greater support now than ever before, and this support can and should start as early as their educational years. We’re grateful for the commitment to excellence shown by Texas Lutheran University’s nursing program, and grateful for the skilled hands and generous hearts of its graduates."

Faith Lutheran Church

Faith, family and tradition are the cornerstones of St. Paul’s Evangelical Lutheran Church located in downtown Brenham Texas. From its earliest days in 1890, this congregation has been a spiritual home where Lutherans have been nurtured and educated in their faith and hundreds of thousands have been served through its mission in the world.

The vision of St. Paul’s is to be a church full of grace filled people, empowered for community transformation, so that the Gospel is faithfully transferred from person to person and generation to generation. St. Paul’s is a congregation with a lively worship life, active children’s, youth and women’s ministry, and a commitment to education ministry that is anchored by its Christian Day School. St. Paul’s Christian Day School serves over 300 children beginning with a pre-school program and continuing through the sixth grade and was created because of the congregation’s understanding that quality education supports the formation of faith in the children of God.

The role of education in faith formation is foundational to St. Paul’s financial support of the education provided by Texas Lutheran University. As a graduate of TLU, who is a member at St. Paul’s states, “Attending Texas Lutheran University was one of the best experiences of my life – it helped me become Lutheran! Making lifelong Lutheran friends, taking religion classes and attending chapel all influenced my involvement in the church.

St. Paul’s is proud to support Texas Lutheran University because it recognizes the mission of TLU to be an extension of its education ministry. As a parent from St. Paul’s, whose child graduated from TLU states, “TLU continues to provide a personal educational experience with Christian values that we as a family thought were important when our son started his post-secondary education. This was truly a continuation of the values that were instilled in him at St Paul’s Christian Day School. At TLU, our son has a name and a story and is not just a number, as is the case with larger universities. We are proud to support TLU because of our experience – our son was known and his gifts and talents were nurtured.” –Pastor Phil Geleske, Lead Pastor
